

HONDA

The Power of Dreams

Mark Elsass, manager at Honda of America Mfg., Inc. is the Operations Technology Leader for Honda's Anna Engine Plant located in West Central Ohio. The majority of Mark's Honda career has been in various Information Services leadership roles related to IT customer services, data center operations, security and infrastructure services. Mark began his Operation Technology assignment in the fall of 2017 with focus on setting strategy and aligning technology to help drive improvement to power train operational characteristics.